

Stories and Texts

What Makes Me a Me?

Home

A range of non-fiction comparing homes now and in the past and schools now and in the past.

Phonics

Children will be grouped in Phonic lessons [just as they were in Reception]. They will continue to learn the Speed Sounds for reading and spelling. Phonics and spellings will be sent home.

Grammar and Punctuation Focus

'Holding a sentence' [this is saying a sentence, repeating it and then writing it].

Learning to use a capital letter and full stop in the right places to punctuate sentences.

English Curriculum Letter

Year 1

Autumn Term 1 2024

'Special Me'

Key Vocabulary

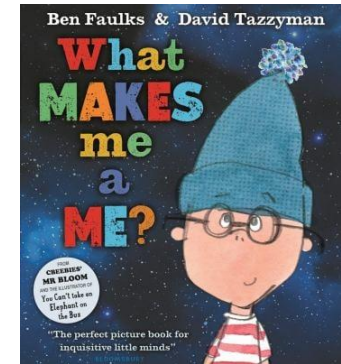

Sentence, full stop, capital letter, 'holding a sentence', past, history, descriptions

ICT Links

<https://www.phonicsplay.co.uk/>

<https://www.busythings.co.uk/families/subjects/english>

Writing Composition Focus

We will be thinking about ourselves and exploring texts on this theme. What makes you, you? Are we all the same? We will be creating our own little books about ourselves, writing sentences describing ourselves.

What were homes and schools like twenty or fifty years ago or more? How can we find out? We will talk to people, use the internet and look in books to find out. We will record what we have discovered through discussion and writing factual sentences.